You're what matters, all that matters
Do you understand your problem?
I've been weightless waiting for this
Let me be the one to help you

Over there I see someone trying to hold on
To what they've become
And all I want to be is here right now

All you've wanted, lost and needed
Will be waiting here beside you

Over there I see someone wanting to hold on to What they've become
And all I want to be is here right now
And everything to me is here right now

Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah

I'm drowning well I'm reaching out to you
The feeling you wanted is right there in front of you
And yesterdays promise don't mean anything today
When you keep on drifting far away

All I want to be
All I want to be
All I want to be
All I want to be

All I want to be
