She climbs right down onto me
Understands I'll believe in anything
And tonight you're everything

In a place I've never been
Though not equally concerned
Everything I hope you'd be
Tonight you're here with me

Days pass me by this way
Finding hope when I see a strangers face
As the night falls into place

In a place I've never been
Though not equally concerned
Everything I hope you'd be
Tonight you're here with me

Collide crash into me
Feeling myself go
Collide crash into me
Who is in control
In control

Time slips right through my mind
Fading fast as I see the things I do
And I know you've seen right through

In a place I've never been
Though not equally concerned
Everything I hope you'd be
Tonight you're here with me

Collide crash into me
Feeling myself go
Collide crash into me
Who is in control
In control
In control
Tonight you're here with me

Collide crash into me

Feeling myself go
Collide crash into me
Who is in control

Collide
Feeling myself go
Collide
Who is in control
Feeling myself go
