I wanna feel
I wanna feel
Everything

One by one
I watch them fall
I've seen my life through a stainglass wall
I don't know if I wanna work it out
Water fills these walls of doubt
I want to
I wanna work it out
I wanna hold what's real
I want to
I want to break it out
It's time to see whats real

One by one
I hear them call
I've heard voices dulled by wooden walls
I don't know if i wanna work it out
Lies disguised by those who shout
I want to
I want to work it out
I wanna hold what's real
I want to
I want to break it out
It's time to hear what's real

I want to feel
Everything
I want to feel
Everything
I want to feel
Everything
I want to feel
Everything

One by one i watch them fall
One by one
Yes I hear them call
Now I know that

I want to work it out
Now its time for me to shout
I want to
I want to work it out
I want to hold what's real
I want to
I want to break it out
It's time to see whats real
I want to feel
Everything
I want to feel
Everything
I want to feel
Everything
I want to feel
Everything

woah ohh woah ohh etc

Everything
Everything
Everything
