Would you tell me your story
Your fall from grace
How you came to this place
Tell me what you're doing here
All your thoughts and all your fears
If there's nowhere left to go
Then there's something you should know

If you fall
Then you're not the only one
If you're blinded
Stop staring at the sun
I'm calling out to you
Because you're reaching out to me
And I wanted you to know

You're extraordinary
You're not ordinary
Are you trying hard enough
To be all that you can be
If you're scared and lonely
Then you're feeling just like me
You only get one life to live
So how's it gonna be
When it's time to fly

You keep waiting
For something
To fall from the sky
Give you every reason why
You're not where you wanna be
If there's nothing left to see
Tell me what you're looking for Cause I know you're wanting more

If you're hurting
You're not the only one
This is the wind
And your life has just begun
I'm calling out to you
Because I know you're listening

And I wanted you to know

You're extraordinary
You're not ordinary
To be all that you can be
If you're scared and lonely
Then you're feeling just like me
You only get one life to live
So how's it gonna be

When you start to see
That everything you need
Is falling into reach
And suddenly I need you to believe

You're extraordinary
You're not ordinary
To be all that you can be
Then you're feeling just like me

(Yeah I saw you standing there)
So how's it gonna be
Sometimes you have to come to me
(Right, If you're feeling scared and lonely)

You got so much to give
