Silent faces,
Young and wasted,
Looking for you now.

Isolated,
Conscious lated,
Beaten to the ground.

Lost and jaded,
Nothing sacred,
Watching as i drown...

Bleed or swallow...
Beg and borrow...
Someone help, me out!

Lake 17,
You give me everything that i need
Lake 17,
I'm drowning but you keep on helping me breathe

Tripping blindly,
Slowly climbing,
Never coming down.

Life below me,
Flashing quickly,
Somehow holding on!

Lake 17,
You give me everything that I need
Lake 17,
I'm drowning but you keep on breathe

Out of my mind i'm falling...
Deep into you!
I hear your voice keep calling...

Barely breathing...
Slowly thinking....
Lost forever now!

Lake 17,
You give me everything that I need!
Lake 17,
I'm drowning but you keep on helping me breathe!

Lake 17
You give me everything that I need!
Lake 17
I'm drowning but you keep on helping me breathe!

You're giving me everything that I need
I'm drowning but you keep on helping me...
