Two connected tongues
Flesh beginnings but still you couldn't taste
Cyanide in the open skies below us
Below us a two way street

And oh, we've eaten all the dough
It's our chance to polish Spanky's boots
Finally see we cannot [Inaudible] we loath it
But in consolation gives us cash [Inaudible]

Come with high regard from heavy metal country
They write you super love and seal it with the kick
And now the creators skull is cracked
Outcome the underground with artificial lungs

They're singing loud, so very proud
To show the mess they made at zoo arcade
When something central took away their guns

Sometimes I'm programmed
Better than the other ones
Sometimes I'm programmed
To shoot the shot around the world
Sometimes I'm programmed

Come with high regard from heavy metal country
They write you super love and seal it with the kick
And now the creators skull is cracked
Outcome the underground with artificial lungs

They're singing loud, so very proud
To show the mess they made at zoo arcade
When something central took away their guns
