i am a scientist - i seek to understand me all of my impurities and evils yet unknown i am a journalist - i write to you to show you i am an incurable and nothing else behaves like me

and i know what's right but i'm losing sight of the clues for which i search and choose
to abuse
to just unlock my mind
yeah, and just unlock my mind

i am a pharmacist prescriptions i will fill you potions, pills and medicines to ease your painful lives i am a lost soul
i shoot myself with rock & roll the hole i dig is bottomless but nothing else can set me free

to abuse

i am an incurable and nothing else behaves like me everything is right everything works out right everything fades from sight because that's alright with me
