How's your life and cycles?
Compared to your next rival?
A '59 revival
A thousand-five survival

Then disregard unthinkable
And be like the unsinkable Fats Domino

And tell it all around them
Above the swell they found him
On common grounds that drown them
No higher than the fountains

Oh the water's so not drinkable
Except to the unsinkable Fats Domino

Animal sound the trumpets
Wimpy crowns will know
Silence will sink the carpet
Saints will drink and move too slow
They'll be to drunk to know

Beyond the vulnerabilities
And nuclear facilities
It's where the search team found him
It's where we'd like to meet you

The water is undrinkable
Except for the unsinkable Fats Domino
So be like them, unsinkable
Make disbelief unthinkable
