

Guillemots

"Blue Would Still Be Blue"

Visit "Blue Would Still Be Blue" on MotoLyrics.com

It's not raining cats, it's not raining dogs
And pigs are not flying or turning the cogs
The sun has no hat on whenever it shines
And I've never seen a cat live nine lives

I'm not in a film, this isn't a play
I saw no aliens landing today
I just saw you and thought of me

Yes, if I had you
All the stars wouldn't fall from the sky
And the moon wouldn't start to cry
There'd be no earthquake
I'd still make mistakes but if I had you

Well, there'd still be day and night
And I'd still do wrong and right
Oh, blue would still be blue
But things would just be easier with you

And this is no palace, this place that I live
And I am no king but I've got things to give
And I waste so much time, thinking about time
And I should be out there, claiming what's mine

'Cause any day I could die just like I was born
And this bit in the middle is what I'm here for
And I, I just want to fill it all with joy

Yes, if I had you
All the stars would not fall from the sky
And the moon wouldn't start to cry
There'd be no earthquakes
I'd still make mistakes but if I had you

Well, there'd still be night and day
We'd all still have to pay
Oh, blue would still be blue
But things would just be easier with you

Visit Guillemots page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.
