"By the Water"

I walked down to the edge of the water
I didn't ask you what you thought
So I left you there forgotten, and I
I never found out what you meant

Sometimes I feel like nothing's ever gonna change
I'll wake up in fifty years and feel the same
But everybody's talking about how it's gonna be okay
But I don't believe them, no, no, no
No, I don't believe them, no, no, no
No, I don't believe them
No, no, no, no, no

Sometimes I feel like nothing's ever gonna change
Sometimes I feel like nothing's ever gonna change
Sometimes I feel like nothing's ever gonna change
