Oh crazy you

What am I supposed to do?

Heaven knows I tried to change you

But you just keep getting stranger

I say

Oh crazy you

What the hell's got air to you?

While you're trying to impress me

With your plastic floor injectors

Crazy you

I'm driving in my car

Every light I see is a star

And it makes me feel so happy, what's wrong?

I'm rebelled in sway in time

And the street light's calling my name

And the goldfish keep on singing king kong

Oh crazy you

Where's the life that we once knew?

With your anger and your madness

All your laugh reveals your sadness

I say

Oh crazy you
Was it all a game to you?
All the friends you left behind you
They're all still there to remind you
Crazy you
Don't beg me
I don't want to
I don't want to
Oh crazy you
What am I supposed to do?
Heaven knows I tried to change you
But you just keep getting stranger
I say
Oh crazy you
where's the life that we once knew?
While the world outside is madness
We can drive away the sadness
Crazy you...
I thought that I knew you
But now I see right through you
Don't beg me, I don't want to
Don't beg me, do what you do
