"Mother of Earth"

I've gone down the river of sadness

I've gone down the river of pain

In the dark, under the wires

I hear them call my name

I gave you the key to the highway

And the key to my motel door

And I'm tired of leaving and leaving

I can't come back no more

Oh, my dark eyed friend

I'm recalling you again

Soft voices that speak nothing

Speak nothing to the end

Oh, Mother of Earth

Blind they call

But yet, stay behind the wall

Their sadness grows like weeds

Upon my thighs and knees

Oh, Mother of Earth

The wind is hot

I tried my best but I could not

And my eyes fade from me

In this open country
