Didn't want it
But you got it
You got it now

And I know, it makes no difference to you now
Far out of reach
Just when you thought it's safe down on the beach
again

Another lie
Cast aside
Left to smoulder away

And I know, it makes no difference to you now
Far out of reach
Just when you thought it's safe down on the beach
again
It's there, the same old plastic fin
Take a shot but they move the goalposts

Look at you know, going through changes
Black, grey, white, shifting stages

Didn't want it
But you got it
You got it now

And I know, it makes no difference to you now
Far out of reach
Just when you thought it's safe down on the beach
again you're wrong
