"Watch What You Say"

Featuring Chaka Khan

[Guru]
coming with the realness lyrics of life some people need to watch what they say

Chorus: Chaka Khan

watch what you're saying someone's gonna hear exactly what you said soon you'll be paying in the dead of night they'll be nowhere to run while you were laying laying for the doom that's coming to a head no kind of praying is gonna save us from the past that will surely come

[Guru]
warning, rappers be like boring they're sleeping, it's deep man so peep in closely when I'm speaking weaklings, it's obvious you can't like up to your pety pointless words, yet and still you love to run off your jibs, now there come a time for judgement punishment, what if we take away your ornaments and strip you down to the raw deal then I'd reveal the evidence cause you don't really represent

Chorus

[Chaka Kahn]
listen here
I'm getting tired of you shooting lip you better tighten up or you will really slip up and say something that you mean to do turn around and it'll be on you to save yourself from your call and blunder and bury your ??? like the world it's under and like a fool you'll sit and wonder what, who do you wanna know, wish no water, no magic spell can save you from your self made hell you've made your bed and you know darn well you got a lay it in the ??? and there's no magic potion to save you from the wheels you've set in motion the stone is cut, the die is cast what were you thinking

Chorus

[Guru]
I can't understand it, they should ban it, can it too much weak talk and not enough real hip-hop I sense a purpose is filling me to display credibility and show responsibility, willingly I'll take on any Johnny Dangerous pull his file, for he knows he cannot hang with this the illest king, I smack the jokers no hocus pocus, a real mc when I kick vocals

Chorus
