Steam slowly builds up now
Between my ears there is fog now
The soothing sounds of your shower
Make my life this hour

I guess I must have messed it up
I guess I must have messed it up
I guess I must have messed it up
When I gave you the ladyshave

Your heart's a pumping bass and I like that, yeah
My heart is missing pace and I like that
A ladyshave I can see now, ho ho
A ladyshave now I know how
Now I know

I guess I must have messed it up
I guess I must have messed it up
I guess I must have messed it up
When I gave you the ladyshave

A lay, a lay, a lay, a ladyshave
I can see now
That to do, to do, to do the ladyshave
Needs a know-how

I guess I must have messed it up
I guess I must have messed it up
I guess I must have messed it up
When I gave you the ladyshave

I guess I must have messed it up
I guess I must have messed it up
I guess I must have messed it up
When I gave you the ladyshave

I guess I must have messed it up
I guess I must have messed it up
I guess I must have messed it up
When I gave you the ladyshave

I guess I must have messed it up
