Feel my heart slamming against my ribs
The smell of your body and the touch of your lips
You are beyond all imagination
You are beyond all imagination

Gee, I love you so much
I can look and I can touch
I can touch

My teenage sensation
My teenage sensation

Your skin must be from another world
My limbs are numbed with your pleasure dome
For the first time, a revelation
Beyond all imagination

Gee, I love you so much
I can look and I can touch
I can touch

My teenage sensation

And I think maybe, it's wrong
(Teenage sensation)
How young is too young
(Teenage sensation)
How young is too young
(Teenage sensation)

My teenage sensation
My teenage sensation
My teenage sensation
