He said to only look up
He said to never look down
Down is where he came from
He said to hope for the best and take a load off my chest
Soon I could be happy
And go all the way up to heaven
And go all the way back home
(whistles)
He thought I might need his help
No one gets high on themselves
I just seem so lonely
He's just trying to be nice
And spread around his advice
I could be that happy
And go all the way up to heaven
And go all the way back home
Stay the way I am today and serve to more disaster
He could tell a fairy tale that's happy ever after Just relax and green of grass will grow here for a change
Maybe then we'll last a million years or more..or more..or more
And go all the way up to heaven
And go all the way back home
Yes, I do believe what he says
I want to be happy
I could show you this hell

No one gets by on themselves
He can make me happy
(It's a long silent peace)
And I will only love him
(It's a weakness in your knees)
And I will never look down
Down is where we came from (It's a perfect place to go for everlasting love)
Because it's all in the past
(Nothing to fear, nothing to hide)
He took a load off my chest
(You just say what's on your mind)
(Needn't think before you speak)

Ooh cause it's not happy
(This is how it's meant to be)
Cause I had needed his help
(Never high, never fall)
No matter how by myself
(You can do no wrong at all)
I am going nowhere
(In this heaven up above filled with everlasting love)
And now I'm changing my plans
Because we only live once
Ooh could be this happy
Once, I could live by his side
