I'm awake, you're still sleeping
The sun will rise like yesterday
Everything that we are now
Is everything we can't let go
Or it's gone forever, far away

I hope tomorrow is like today
Like today

Don't you go away tomorrow
I don't think I could handle that You're probably dreaming that you're flying on
And then you start to fall but then you rise
And shine forever, don't go away

I hope tomorrow is like today
I hope tomorrow is like today
Like today, like today, like today

I hope tomorrow is like today
I hope tomorrow is like today
I hope tomorrow is like today
Like today
