Well ready or not we're on the long dark road
Well everything will be alright
This is an issue that I have known
We're a thousand miles away from the city lights
Thunder and lightning and demons from the sky
Driving down to the lip of hell
A smile on my face as I'm passing by you better get out of my way
Yea Yea Yea

Pushin down on the accelerator we're on a deadly curve
Rollin down the line at 200mph
Decision time, the back ends lose
And it's all that I deserve
I'd rather burn in hell baby
Than stay in here forever YEA YEA

GO

Well ready or not we're on the long dark road
Well everything will be alright
This is an issue that I have known
We're a thousand miles away from the city lights
Burning gasoline, the engine ready to explode Decision comes
It goes so fast until the end of night YEA YEA YEA

Oh Yea Go!
