Real life was never like this
The door opened as I fell trough
Minds of man like piss
Learning is a thing of the past

The door has opened and closed
I'm locked inside this out side world
Why the fuck no one knows
Why the fuck am I trapped like this

World of forgotten minds
Living on parallel lines
Forgotten people of the past
In the human race
I came out last

I've been left behind
Left behind with human kind
I want to go away
I'm with these people every day

Human kind was left behind
And I don't want to be here
Human kind was left behind
And I don't want to be here

World of forgotten minds
Living on parallel lines
Forgotten people of the past
In the human race
I came out last
