She sits at home by the phone waiting for his call
with no response at all.
And he, out with another girl without a care in the world doesn't think of her at all

But she was the one who always stood by him
she was the one who changed his life.
He was the one who treated her like shit but then again she chose that life.

But I don't want to know, don't want to care about any of this at all.
And I don't want to know, don't want to care about any of this at all.

She sits at home late at night they just got in a fight it happened once again.

He left her all alone
but he's not on his own he's out with her friend.

Now he sits at home by the phone waiting for her call
with no response at all.
And she finally realized didn't want to live that life now she will watch him fall

But she was the one who always stood by him
she was the one who changed his life.
He was the one who treated her like shit now he will learn to live her life.
