Stars Fell On Alabama

The Four Aces

Words and Music by Frank Perkins and Mitchell Parish

This version not released as a single

Charted in 1934 by Guy Lombardo (# 1) and Richard Himber (# 2)

TRANSCRIBER'S NOTE: A different format is used here.

Because most lyrics are sung by all four of the Four Aces, said lyrics are not annotated. Those sung only by lead Al Alberts are shown in (parentheses).

We lived our little drama

We kissed in a field of white

And stars fell on Alabama last night

I can't forget the glamour

Your eyes held a tender light

And stars fell on Alabama last night

(I never planned in my imagination a situation so heavenly)

(A fairy land where no one else could enter)

(In the center, just you and me, dear)

My heart beat like a hammer

My arms wound around you tight

And stars fell on Alabama last night

(I never planned in my imagination a situation so heavenly)

(A fairy land where no one else could enter)

(In the center, just you and me, dear)

My heart beat like a hammer

My arms wound around you tight

And stars fell on Alabama last night
