They all walked away, with nothing to say They'd just lost their dearest friend. All that He said, no
He was dead, so this was the way it would end.
The dreams they had dreamed, were not waht they'd seemed, now that He was dead and gone.
The garden, the jail, the hammer , the nail.
How could a night be so long

Then came the morning, night turned into day. The stone was rolled away, hope rose with the dawn. Then came the morning, shadows vanished before the sun.
Death had lost and Life had won, for morning had come

The angel, the star, the kings from afar.
The wedding, the water , the wine. Noe it wasdone, they'd taken her son. Wasted before his time. She knew it was true, she'd watched him die too, she'd heard then call Him just a man. But deep in her heart, She knew from the start.
Somehow her Son would live again

Then came the morning, night turned into day. The stone was rolled away, hope rose with the dawn. Then came the morning, shadows vanished before the sun.
Death had lost and Life had won, for moring had come

The came the morning , shadows vanished before the sun, Death had lost and Life had won, for morning had come

Morning had come
