Rid yourself of all the worthless crap in which you wallow
Here's an iron fist of death for you to swallow
Undead from Antarctica, the signals pumping free
C'mon lets wake the maggot up, it's on Slave Pit TV

You might sleep on concrete slabs
Or be a blithering bohab
Yet your growth is exponential
If you consume excremental

Pay to play every single day
You feel your brain cells melt away
The appalling calling why don't you go away?
We'll jack your world

Now your in the maggot chamber
Corpses fill the charnel manger
Toilets pointing underground
Can't forget the sloppy sound

Jack jack the world
Jack jack the world
Jack jack the world

Pay to play every single day
You feel your brain cells melt away
The appalling calling why don't you go away?
We'll jack your world

I wanna suck like lovers do
I wanna lose a Grammy too
I wanna kick the teeth outta you
