In the hulking halls of hatred where the Master makes his throne

Within the ass toroid belt where his body floats Alone his mind begins to wander the worm begins to turn all life

He must now squander the universe must burn

He plans eternal war, as the eternal way
But there is a force, which he must now obey
Time and the events within, chronicles of hate and sin Everything, it has a start, but the end is always the best part

Our quest, to find the broken bits
Put them back and make them fit
And once that we have read the end

The tablet will blow up again
The tablet will blow up again
The tablet will blow up again
The tablet will blow up again

And we'll kill everything
And we'll kill everything
And we'll kill everything

Including ourselves summoning the Master Call his form most vile Champing mass of questing flesh Protoplasmic pile

Ancient hunger, never filled until the universe is killed
The endless host of merging soul sucked into the feeding hole
Guts and giblets cascade down rectal midgets, flattened ground
Please pay attention to the plot as I kick out this monster's snot

Splitting skulls and raking ribs, trephinated drainage sieve
Protruding mass of reeking bile which forms infected

booger pile
Assemble now the tablet hope that it's not Braille Bring forth now the Master so we can end this tale

And we'll kill everything
And we'll kill everything
And we'll kill everything
Especially ourselves

Transmogrify your plasmid swarm evaporate before time's storm
And dedicate your life to porn and dedicate your life to porn
You think that life has a reason? You think your god has a soul?
I bare my bum to the heavens I think a head is a hole

And we'll kill everything
And we'll kill everything
And we'll kill everything
Including ourselves
