Out to the doghouse with you, that's what she said
You've been inside too long now, I must clean the mess
Go into the backyard will you, and practice your tricks
Go take yourself for a walk, you make me sick

You're just a doggy, in a snap you're fetching the bone
And you're barking when she calls
You're hiding behind the fence, you've been disobedient

Your fun and playfulness is so very becoming
But she has got you by the reins, and there is no running
Conditioned to salivate at the first, sound of the bell
And feeding you the remains of, of yesterday's meal
Can you hear her calling from within the house?

While you're just a doggy, in a snap you're fetching the bone
And you're barking when she calls
You're hiding behind the fence, you've been
disobedient
Shape up boy!

running
Conditioned to salivate at the first, sound of the bell
Feeding you the remains of, of yesterday's meal

Can you hear her calling from within the house?
If you would stop barking, she might let you out

At last she opens the back gate
You're released, you're now free to roam
You've been waiting for this moment for sometime
And now you must go
Into the fields where there is laughter
There is peace and you're comfortable
Try to hold on now, before she calls you home!

You're in the doghouse

'Cause you're just a dog!
You're in the doghouse
And you're just a dog!

You're in the doghouse
And you're just a dog!
You're in the doghouse
Just 'cause you're just a dog!

You're only the doggy
You're still dog
You're in the doghouse
And you're just a dog!

You've been in the doghouse
You're sill dog
You've been in the doghouse
You're sill dog
