Thank You for Making me
Feel like
I am guilty.
Making it
Easy to
Murder your sweet memory...

You were way
Out of line.
Went and turned it all around on me again.
How can I, not smell your lie
Through the smoke and arrogance?

But now I know,
So you will not get away with it again.
I'm distant in those hollow eyes,
For I have reached my end.
So...

Thank You for Making me
Feel like
I am guilty.
Making it easy to
Murder your sweet memory.

Before I go,
Tell me...
Were you ever who you claimed yourself to be?

Either way I must say goodbye.
You're dead to me...

So I...

Thank You for making me
Feel like
I am guilty
Making it easy to murder your sweet memory...

I'm severing the heart,
Then I'm
Leaving your corpse behind

Not dead but soon to be, though.
I won't be the one who killed you...
I'll just leave that up to you.

I'm not gonna be here to revive you

I'm not gonna be here to revive you

I'm not gonna be here to revive you

I'm gonna be the one to say...

I told you so.
I told you so.
I told you so.
I told you so.
I told you so.
I told you so.
I told you so.
I told you...

Severing the heart,
Then I'm leaving your corpse behind.

Not dead but soon to be and
I'm gonna be the one to say,
"I told you so."
