I'm trying, so hard
To get you out of my mind
I tried so hard
Until it was all over and done with
My feelings were long gone
No longer hurt in my stomach
At first it was love kid,
Then turned into constant arguments,
I tried my hardest to stop it,
This bitchin
Always started it
Taken advantage of my fragile heart,
Tore it apart
The state of one attraction
I should of known from the start
Over powered by hazel eyes
My mind paused for a minute
Picturing love,
There was nothing that could block the image
My thoughts depended,
On her actions,

Her ways,

Her love

Asked her father gods of lust

I prayed enough?

Embarced her trust mate

No fuss just dream happily

Day by day

I noticed the pain increase rapidly

In a dieing sence

I tried to forget it

And let it past

So by doing this

I forced to the relationship that would never lost

Every past was berecated

All trust was gone

Playing stupid, as I never knew,

What went wrong

(Chorus)

I, I question my... a love for you,

To leavin me

Who knew I can't handle this pain,

Cried for you in this rain

Why... a won't you say

Sorry, Turn around

And come back home?

I'm just so tired of bein alone

(End of Chorus)

I hate her

How many times haven't I said it?

I hate the fact that she hates me

And I shall never forget it

Never had I ever fuck with her feelings,

Let her regret it

All of these years,

Lost in the tears,

That my letters presented

I still miss her

Catch myself, slittin my wrist

With the glass

I seperated

From the last picture we flick

Together is 1,

Wondering what I've done to take this,

Holding my pillow every night,

Wish that she replace it

Well fuck it,

It's all over and done,

Feeling's are gone

And I'm starting to get tired of love killing my songs

So then my arms

Are forgotten trees,

Left in my shirt

I love you,

Shit I can't even say I remember the words

Never concerning anything

Having to do with her past

You ruined it last

We're hiding the truth in a mass,

Stupid ass

I'm ignoring the crap that you moaned

We had out times

Until today,

I hope you're happy alone

(Chorus)
