im not addicted to drugs im addicted to being hurt it may seem berserk but none of these stress relievers work popin pill after pill trying to get my head straight trying to over power the pain until the next day

but it aint happening im an addict thats half asleep while the other half of me is trapped in a series of bad dreams my current position was trippin on trees of acid casts until my eyes collapsed in suicide was an after math falling down

erasing memories you gave to me im still alive and nothing you say can make me breath
so please take away the pain that hurts me i don't want to be alone and thirsty so many drugs to push the pain
i have in trapped in me cause i don't wanna live my life inside this fantasy
so please take away the pain that fills me i don't wont to be the one that kills me i cant take this pain
cause im DIEING
i cant close my eyes
cause im CRYING
cause the skills
taken over my brain
side effects causes pain
i think im going insane
(INSANE)
i cant take this pain
cause im DIEING
i cant close my eyes

cause im CRYING
cause the skills
taken over my brain
side effects causes pain
i think im going insane
(INSANE)

i guess im insane indeed cause no matter what the fuck i do you never seem happy adapting to stronger drugs larger quantities

killing myself constantly my eyes start to bleed the feeling of being alive just isn't enough serenches i stuff with heroine im feeling the rush inside of my veins and my brains fried from filling to much with drugsim willing to crush my chances of being in love

can make me breath
inside this fantasy
cause im DIEING
i cant close my eyes
cause im CRYING
cause the skills
taken over my brain
side effects causes pain
(INSANE)
i cant take this pain
cause im DIEING
i cant close my eyes
cause im CRYING
cause the skills

side effects causes pain
(INSANE)

maybe because you made my that way turn me into a monster i would of never become creating thought of dieing eventually severed my brain irritated my vain intoxicated my system it went on for days i had cravings of wisdom

i wanted your fuckin opinion so im making you listen listen to all the pain Ive been feeling recently killed myself and only now do you realize that you miss me

falling down
can make me breath
inside this fantasy
cause im DIEING
cause im CRYING
cause the skills
taken over my brain
side effects causes pain
(INSANE)
i cant take this pain
cause im DIEING
cause im CRYING
taken over my brain

(INSANE)
