Erase all the pain thats left
This pain that easily became my death
Pain of the bitch that made me stress
Push me away, take my breath
Send me to another place we hear
Anyplace I don't care
Let me face my fear
Looking back at your face for years
Drips of blood, taste my tears
And to think I thought you saved me
Its been years since I lost my baby
1 glock with shots debating
This bitch has got me crazy
You think I'm kidding but I'm not
So keep it away from me
Cuz' I swear to god girl imma set you free
Your not leaving this room until this blitz empty

I thought you loved me
You never gave a fuck
Why did you have to go and take my life from me
Note it in your eyes
I finally realize
That everything you said was taking life from me
Looking through the sex
The memories feel me back
Why did you have to go and take my life from me
And then you say your sad
Lost everything you had
Still everyday your always taking life from me

Another lost had made me strong
I look back at the days went wrong
And I think that all the pain was gone
And that I wouldn't be here but not a day goes on Where I just wanna take my life
Maybe get low make things right (right)
And depressed I'm losing sight (sight)
On embracing night (night)
Just know that I'm not confused
Cruel words that I said to you
Think know discovered you

Until I'm gone this is meant for you (meant for you)
You can think I'm kidding but I'm not
So keep that away from me
Cuz' I swear to god girl imma set you free
I'm not leaving this room until this blitz empty

I thought you loved me
You never gave a fuck
Why did you have to go and take my life from me
Note it in your eyes
I finally realize
That everything you said was taking life from me
Looking through the sex
The memories feel me back
Why did you have to go and take my life from me
And then you say your sad
Lost everything you had
Still everyday your always taking life from me

Cock back on my brain rewind
Its too late to change my mind
My mouth griped this gage this time
I lean back the bullet escapes just fine
Feeling a lil' noctous now
Cant breathe the bullet has knocked me down
Where the fuck is god at now
Too much stress, IV GOT TO YELL
Fuck that I cant breathe no more
Heart stopped and it beat much more
Pain calmed by this freaking whore
I shot myself and SHES AFORD
Cuz' she thought I was kidding but I wasn't
So keep that away from me
Cuz' I swear to got girl imma set you free
Your not leaving this room alone without me

I thought you loved me
You never gave a fuck
Why did you have to go and take my life from me
Note it in your eyes
I finally realize
That everything you said was taking life from me
Looking through the sex
The memories feel me back
Why did you have to go and take my life from me
And then you say your sad
Lost everything you had
Still everyday your always taking life from me

I thought you loved me
Why did you have to go and take my life from me

Take my life from me [x2]

And now you say your sad
Lost everything you had
Still everyday your always

Taking life from me [x2]
