"No Place To Run"

Sometimes, seems it's harder to live than to regret But there's nowhere to run girl, but there's nowhere to run

I've found you only live once so don't look back 'Cause there's nowhere to run girl, 'cause there's nowhere to run

Hey we can escape into the masses
Slip out of our shells 'cause there's no one to impress
So grab onto my hand nothing can stop us
Live like there's no tomorrow

Sometimes it's harder to face myself than face the world
But there's nowhere to run girl, but there's nowhere to
run
I've found we are who we are so love yourself
'Cause there's nowhere to run girl, 'cause there's
nowhere to run

Hey we can escape into the masses
Slip out of our shells 'cause there's no one to impress
So grab onto my hand nothing can stop us
Live like there's no tomorrow

Lips are talkin'
Eyes are watchin
Now until the end
Wouldn't it be nice to let 'em miss us?
Our eyes are locking Lips are softly leading us to sins...
I'll take my chances now a beg forgiveness

Hey we can escape into the masses
Slip out of our shells 'cause there's no one to impress
So grab onto my hand nothing can stop us
Live like there's no tomorrow
