Pillmatic

Three Xanies down, I'm poundin' Honey Browns

I'm pillmatic

The oxycontin got my stomach rotten.

Pillmatic

I swear to God I'm not an addict,

But I'm still at it, dag nabbit I'm pillmatic.

Thinking back on when it all started

I found pink hearts in mommy's little pocket book

And took 'em

Poppin when she wasn't looking

I guess it runs in the family

I'm liable to eat any pill you randomly hand me

Save the greenery

I'm looking for them labels

Reading "may cause drowsiness" "be careful when operating machinery"

Beautiful pharmaceuticals

Residue in my cuticles

Sniffin' them when it's suitable

Wishin' they made 'em chewable.

Catch me in the source with five pills next to my name

Like fuck five mics I want five vic fame

If killing pain is the name of the game

Then im your number one draft pick

Dash quick to the closest medicine cabinet

Kill the whole bottle

Never played the role model position

I'm just livin'

So take 2 of these and call me in the morning

I'ma take 4 and finish this 40 cause life's boring.

Pillmatic

Three Xanies down, I'm poundin' Honey Browns

I'm pillmatic

The oxycontin got my stomach rotten.

Pillmatic

I swear to God I'm not an addict,

But I'm still at it, dag nabbit I'm pillmatic.

Keep the hydro unless it's codone behind it

Never have to roam far from home to find it

Writin' fake scripts like my doctor signed it

'Til I spelled his last name wrong

This ain't a song for the kids like the last album
Put 'em to bed go ahead and turn the valium up
A couple meds to ease the pain of the papercuts
The doctor says slow down maybe later but 40 milligrams, a 40 and I'm faded
This world is crazy so I stay medicated
Percocet, ativan, and colonapin
When my social lights are out
They turn them on again
I need 'em 'til I'm bored again
Oxycontin, orange juice and gin
Equals projectile wild style burner on a porcelain
Pillmatic
Three Xanies down, I'm poundin' Honey Browns
I'm pillmatic
The oxycontin got my stomach rotten.
Pillmatic
I swear to God I'm not an addict,
But I'm still at it, dag nabbit I'm pillmatic.
