Her manner's charming
But nice she ain't
Her smile's disarming
But nice she ain't

She's a dame with more love to give than she pretends
And a heart that's too warm to be refused
Every place that she goes she makes a million friends
That lady has friends that she ain't even used

Well, I'm no bargain and she's no saint
But oh so nice she ain't
But nice she ain't, but nice she ain't

She's a dame with more love to give than she
pretends
And a heart that's too warm to be refused
Every place that she goes she makes a million friends
That lady has friends that she ain't even used

Well, I'm no bargain and she's no saint
If nice she ain't I've no complaint Cause mine, oh mine she is
