My eyes only focused on you
You alone but no one else
My heart grew weaker and dimmer with you
Only with you, I can't get any worse

You followed the sign-less road
With only your wishes to accompany you
I wanted to be your guide

Do you need me?
In anything in everything I could help you
But first you have to be my friend and learn that you can't play with any heart
Especially with mine
Do you need me?
In anything in everything I could help you
But first you have to be my friend and learn that there is no game (Noo...)
There's no game

Your words are so strong yet so bare
You mean what you say
Will you change for me?
Your ways, an example of your trends
You hurt me at first
You made me stronger now

There's hope till the dawn of time
Tell me something I don't know
You have to prove those words

Do you need me?
In anything in everything I could help you
can't play with any heart

Especially with mine
Do you need me?
In anything in everything I could help you
is no game (Noo...)
There's no game

I'm giving you every inch of my heart
Every inch of my soul
If only you shared what I share right now
Do you need me??

Do you need me?
In anything in everything I could help you
can't play with any heart
Especially with mine
Do you need me?
In anything in everything I could help you
is no game (Noo...)
There's no game

Do you need me?
In anything in everything I could help you
can't play with any heart
Especially with mine
Do you need me?
In anything in everything I could help you
is no game (Noo...)
There's no game
