From the brightest side of this star, I'll forget just who you are.
As you lie like lounge room lizards - If you speak then I know where you are.
Each time you fix it, it just falls apart. (hock it in)
You won't get shit from a busted heart. (let me see)
Your goddamn money, I'll prove it to you. Let me see, let me through.
It's agreed we'll follow you, just as long as this compass is true.
If it's not, then I guess follow me. Let me see, let me through.
Each time you fix it, it just falls apart. (hock it in)
You won't get shit for a busted heart. (let me see)
Your dirty money, I'll prove it to you. Let me see, let me through.
Take twenty two of three, then we'll see how well she takes it, if she makes it.
Don't let her fall asleep, click of fingers and she takes it, she fakes it.
But we broke up oh so long ago.
Cover me, and I'll cover you. I can sense that our company's true.
If it's not, then I guess we can leave. Let me see, let me through.
But we broke up oh so long ago.
Take twenty two of three, then we'll see how well she takes it, if she makes it.
Don't let her fall asleep, click of fingers and she takes it, she fakes it.
But we broke up oh so long ago.
From the brightest side of this star, I'll forget just who you are.
As you lie like lounge room lizards - If you speak then I know where you are.
