I am the broken one; I'll trade me in for anything.
Now watch your temper son, don't wanna crack or anything anyway.
I let them get away. You said they would find them all anyway?

Hey hey - I admit I messed you up,
I truly thought that you would learn by now.
Heard by now.
Hey hey - when you came aboard we won,
I never said I'd chase the sun for you.
What am I gonna do?

I had a temper once. Don't want it back or anything
anyway.
But now I have this gun, I'd trade it back for anything.
I let them get away. You said they would find them all
anyway?

Hey hey - I admit I messed you up,
I truly thought that you would learn by now.
Hurt by now
Hey hey - when you came aboard we won,
I never said I'd chase the sun for you.
What am I gonna do?

Hey! - no more questions from you!
I let them get away. You said they would find them all anyway?

(And chorus again)

Hey hey - when you came aboard we won,
I never said I'd change the song for you.
What am I gonna do?
Hey hey
