You know that window in your basement?
I used to sleep outside it. Now I'm inside hiding from you.
If you wake up in the morning, I haven't done my job right.
Not from lack of trying, it's just love

Darling I will set this straight, tomorrow's a new day.
OK? OK

Didn't wake up in the morning,
I must have done my job right,
Thanks to careful planning and some luck
Fell asleep beneath you bed - been under there for days
OK? OK!

You're one... just one step in front of me.

I bet that it won't even make the evening news,
Girl I'm stalking you in your sleep
Darling I have set you straight 100 times today
OK? OK!
You're one... just one step in front of me

I just met my new replacement.
He's called me 13 times today.
Says if it breathes I'll entertain it.
Make it stay... Make it's day.

What comes around goes around darling, my darling girl.
What goes around comes around... my darling girl.

You're one... just one step in front of me.
You'll get... you'll get nothing out of me

I just met my new replacement.
He's called me 13 times today
Says if it breathes I'll entertain,
Yes if it breeds I guess I'll take it's place
Make it stay.

Better hope that in the morning,
That you don't find this creepy
Cause now I'm inside sleeping next to you.
