Two individuals pulled from a lake
Inside a vehicle, one had his foot on the break
The windows was fully up and the doors was locked
The news made the headline and the town was shocked

The driver was clutching a can of Hi C
His jacket was tied to a near by tree
His jeans had dye in them and an usual tattoo
Was the only hope to identifying them

The autopsies revealed gun shot wounds
Dental records matched to a newly wed groom
This accident was a cover up for homicide
Two, who might have stayed alive from paying bribes

Sheets investigators had relied on the media for help
And to track down the perpetrators
They canvassed the neighborhood with standard procedure
And visited the home of a topless skeezer

Who was at the bar when he was last seen alive
Left with him just ten minutes after they arrived
Despite the police efforts they turned up nothing
Just an ex hooker tryna get a rep from bluffing

But the wide publicity had just paid off
From a hard rock inmate who was just made soft
He said he knew a man who killed the pop star
And almost got caught by a passing cop car

The inmate said probably the motive was robbery
And knowing if he keeping it a secret, it bothers me
He said this individual killed for low billings
And purchased a murder kit blocks from the killing

The sheriff's office had no time to waste
Plus the inmate never deal to avoid the case
So he cooperated fully and snitched on his chop shop mechanic
Who used to move bodies on the pulley

An extortionist involved in similar incidents
Payments that came in thousand dollar increments
Suspicious activities that flooded the place
So they subpoenaed phone records for the calls were traced

The hair that was taken from his car interior
Was that of a young girl who felt inferior
She died fighting and probably aroused his anger
Holding off her life as she faced the strangler

The crime seemed to be sexual from nature
It was substantial evidence that the nigga raped her
The suspects had marks on his face and chest
But it just wasn't enough to get an arrest

Asked of his whereabouts on the third of July
Said he partied with his friends and had a solid alibi
But there's always something left at the scene on a small scale
Was the microscopic traces of blood under her fingernails
