Love has, never ever looked so beautiful
(So beautiful)

I can't believe it
You're standing here in front of me
Like a promise
Like a breath of honesty

I surrender to this feelin' in my soul
And my heart's desire
Can't pretend I'm not about to lose control
I'm falling for the fire

Love has, never ever looked so beautiful
Never ever felt so wonderful, so wonderful
There's no turning back
I'm falling for the fire
Love is, making me believe in miracles
Making me believe I'm whole again, I'm whole again
There's no turning back, no turning back from here

You made me over
In just a second the skies were clear
I saw the sunrise
I heard the music and lost my fear

I surrender to this feelin' in my soul
And my heart's desire
Can't pretend I'm not about to lose control
I'm falling for the fire

Love has, never ever looked so beautiful
Never ever felt so wonderful, so wonderful
There's no turning back
I'm falling for the fire
Love is, making me believe in miracles
Making me believe I'm whole again, I'm whole again
There's no turning back, no turning back from here

I'll sing you a love song, write you a letter
Paint you a picture of how it could be

Sing you a love song, ask you a life time
Open your eyes and you'll see, it's you and me

Love has, never ever looked so beautiful
(never ever, never ever..)
Never ever felt so wonderful, so wonderful
(...felt so wonderful)
There's no turning back
(no turning back)
I'm falling for the fire

Love has, never ever looked so beautiful
(Love)
Never ever felt so wonderful, so wonderful
There's no turning back
(no turning back)
I'm falling for the fire
Love is, making me believe in miracles
(making me believe in miracles)
Making me believe I'm whole again, I'm whole again
There's no turning back, no turning back baby
'Cause there's no turning back
No turning back, baby
'Cause there's no turning back

No turning back from here
