Who be first to catch this beat down?
My rap pages be the source
Ego trip remain victory, and no loss
Rap sheet show you details of wars in streets

Where the most live, catch vibe and blaze heat Double XL, XXL, kings who rush through, got right on Quick to stress ya, sound crew to get a mic on Math lets the plates spin

Consecutive hits, promoters' face grin
The dawn catch fist, keep the paper direct wire, see MJ retire
Unlike the story that echoes out from chronic liars
Like those who feast on hogs, eat murder dogs

A village voice kid with his heart and soul calm
Killa bees produce the honey, that fortify the platinum
Plus the DJ claws fiend to scratch them
Thus street team take shots at criticism

Promotional vehicles wiffin' wit mad rhythm
With the lockout of one of our source sports
We spice the stand and launch the stage on the ball court
During the first half, number one draft

Rap lords, swing swords, slam microphone, shatter billboards
Forty-eight in sight after inhalin' the herb
Vision impaired, when the silhouette emerged
One nut out the clan

Get your whole click banned from radio
PD's cut your raps man
Forcin' me to move on from one world to another
On the gulf from the fuel jet to hover

Take cover wit the radical, urban Latino
No hip hop connection wit us and Janet Reno
I do an interview and they aim to trace my essence
To know more than is necessary blunts your weapon

My group's nova, remain unsober
And serve high times wit king cobras
I shoulder low-post MC's
Your whole style [unverified]
Second to get your word up then the troops unleash

Creative [unverified] to the grand opening
Wit my ray gun scoping, you're hoping Uniforms be fridged when they walk the black beat
In the heat, of razors exposin' fresh meat

In bedrock and gambling, rolling stone, out of zone
Where they can't monitor my 'xact poem
Collide wit the tiger beat, rappin' raga
Ebony eyes, folks see the saga
