Ain't nothing working, ain't nothing right
There's a whole in me that I can't fill
No matter how hard I try

Hey, hey
Hey bartender, hit me with a double
And introduce me to that girl with the bubble
Haa I'm lookin' for trouble tonight
No mama, don't trust me tonight
You be the center baby
I'd be the quarterback
Hike hit the tailback
Watch it on playback
Jah smash that hittin' that red bone
Up in the end zone bitin' on the collar bone

I just want your company
I want you to comfort me, just come with me

Hey bartender, hit me with another
I just about had to kill this brother
Shit I'm lookin' for trouble tonight
No mama, don't trust me tonight
You be the beauty baby
I'd be the beast
Who gives a fuck take it to the bedroom
Take it the streets
Take it like a man muthafucker
Yo bitch chose me muthafucker

I just want your company
I want you to comfort me, just come with me

I just want your company
I want you to comfort me, just come with me

(Take me there, take me with you)
I can't be alone tonight
I can't trust myself tonight
I can't trust myself tonight
Baby please don't trust me tonight
(Take me there, take me with you)

I can't be alone tonight
I can't trust myself tonight
I can't trust myself tonight
No you can't trust me tonight, woo

Ain't nothing working, ain't nothing right
There's a whole in me that I can't fill
No matter how hard I try
Ain't nothing sweeter, there ain't nothing wrong
All the pain that I receive keeps me strong
It keeps me movin' on

I just want your company
(I know, movin' on)
I want you to comfort me, just come with me
(I know)

I just want your company
I want you to comfort me, just come with me

I just want your company
I want you to comfort me, just come with me

Comfort me, just come with me
Comfort me, just come with me
