Nobody move, nobody get hurt
Somebody don't know, so that body got burnt
You in the jungle, baby, you gonna die
Might as well get fucked, might as well get high

On the real son, I'mma take everything, I need
The drugs, the sex, the power, the American dream
I'm a rude, rude boy raised by TV
I laugh at violence, pain and death don't mean shit to me

It's got to be like that
Call me a loser, yo, I can deal with that
You think you're all that, till I lay you on your back
With your legs spread, haa boom! How you like that?

How you like that?
How you like that?
How you like that?
Can you feel me?

How many motherfuckers, just like me
Grew up just like me, fucked up, just like me
Wake up, light up, watching B E T
They're fuckin' babies, mothers from Jersey to Cali

Don't get mad, get high, go get even
Go get your shit back, then tell that lyin' ho, you're leavin'
I smoke weed, I drink wine
Take your daughter to my tour bus
And fuck her from behind

It's got to be like that
Call me a loser, yo, I can deal with that
You think you're all that, till I lay you on your back
With your legs spread, haa boom! How you like that?

How you like that?
How you like that?
How you like that?
Can you feel me?

You were never there, when I was down
Like when I needed someone, you were nowhere to be found
I remember the sound of your heartbeat
I remember how you found something good in me

Now I remember how you started fucking with me
You kept fucking on me, always trying to pull
Something with me, shit, this ain't no game to me
This shit is life to me, and you ain't living right, baby

It's got to be like that
Call me yo nigga, I can deal with that
You think you're all that, till I lay you on your back
With your legs spread, haa boom! How you like that?

How you like that?
How you like that?
How you like that?

Hear my dog say, "How you like that?"
My nigga say, "How you like that?"
White boy say, "How you like that?"
My lady say, "How you like that?"

New York say, "How you like that?"
Cali say, "How you like that?"
Huh, Miami say, "How you like that?"
Detroit say, "How you like that?"

Portland say, "How you like that?"
L.A. say, "How you like that?"
D.C. say, "How you like that?"
[Incomprehensible] say, "How you like that?"

Jersey say, "How you like that?"
Dallas say, "How you like that?"
[Incomprehensible] say, "How you like that?"
