Ain't no more sunshine, just rain and cold suffrage
Generation born to die with their eyes wide open
The clock strikes, the wrong rights
The mob rules, the second Armageddon, igniting the lit fuse

No turning back and every soldier is on point
Ready to die, the confrontation coming, ready or not
It's on again, it's time to say your prayers again
It's not the end, just the beginning of the end

(What is it worth?)
Yea, I can hold it down like that
(What is it wild?)
Yea, you know I break it down like that
(What is it rough?)
Don't even try to front like that
I'm on fire baby, a big dog will hunt like that

Another day, another buster wanna battle me
Another mama crying, now her baby is in casualty
I'm ready nigga, slice like a machete nigga, got fatty
nigga
Never spend it on Betty nigga

I hit and run, never stressing to look back
When I look back, I think about the love I never had Then I wake up, I get fucked up and I get even Approach you from the front but in your back a knife
I'm leaving

(What is it worth?)
Yea, I can hold it down like that
(What is it wild?)
Yea, you know I break it down like that
(What is it rough?)
Baby don't even try to front like that
I'm on fire dog, a nigga well hung like that

The sky is falling, I don't care
(I just want to feel good)
Her train's leaving, she don't care

(She just wants to feel good)
The world is dying, we don't care
(We just want to feel good)
It's all over, we don't care
(We just want to feel good)

No, we can't compromise like that
No, we can't conform like that
I'm saying fuck you and fuck the norm like that
Revolt and transform like that make a difference
Have a motherfuckin' impact

It won't stop raining, it's flooding, Revelation was all true
You drew first blood, Jesus is coming to take you
Coming to break you, make you just like new Satan laughing, spreads his wings and gets a new tattoo

A new platinum chain, a new pinky ring, the Rolex, the Benz
The huggy bear pimp thing
Nigga it's midnight, never forget where you come from
Keep your mouth shut, back the fuck up, watch what you doing?
Punk, bitch, motherfucker

(What is it worth?)
Yea, I can hold it down like that
(What is it wild?)
Yea, you know I break it down like that
(What is it rough?)
Baby don't even try to front like that
I'm on fire dog, a nigga well hung like that

The sky is falling, I don't care
(I just want to feel good)
Her train's leaving, she don't care
(She just wants to feel good)
The world is dying, we don't care
(We just want to feel good)
It's all over, we don't care
(We just want to feel good)
(We just want to feel good)
(We just want to feel good)

We just wanna feel good
We just wanna feel good
