"Silence Is Betrayal"

he time comes when silence is betrayal a new day had dawned there's no force on this planet that will keep me from speaking the truth, you'll have to carry me out feet first in a coffin before I'll shut up about the truth let us find out today, who is the real power behind government,
my brothers and sisters, the answer may surprise you, it is you
The secret governments will continue in a few moments

you are the powers behind the throne
moments
