Listen, messages are in code

Well I can only show you the door is open It's your freedom of choice weather to walk through
If you stand on the sidelines of this revolution
Then your choices might be made for you

You've got to fight
Cause it's a fight for freedom
And your rights before they take 'em away
You've got to fight
It's your right to read code
you've go to fight stand up and fight

The night is long but the sun will rise
The day of the golden dome
So say your prayer and dry your eyes
Remember you're the chosen one

One night when the moon was dark and the whole wide world was quiet
She did steel into the halls to commit her mission silent
She used her magic and her craft to revel the great sarcophagus
The great enchantress Iceus arouse the foulest of Osiris

You've got to fight
Cause it's a fight for freedom

And your rights before they take 'em away
You've got to fight
It's your right to read code
you've go to fight stand up and fight

The night is long but the sun will rise
The day of the golden dome
So say your prayer and dry your eyes
Remember you're the chosen one

Listen, messages are in code

Yeah we want illumination this is another fight for freedom
This is a war for information
This is your initiation into the esoteric nation
From Babylon to the free masons
This is your initiation into the fight for freedom
The freedom of information this is your initiation

You've got to fight, you've got to fight
Fight for your rights

The night is long but the sun will rise
The day of the golden dome
So say your prayer and dry your eyes
Remember you're the chosen one

Remember you're the chosen one
