Hey Gabriel, how do u feel today? Are you wings tired?
Can you see your shadow on the souls of the human race?

There must be something inside of me, I see you're shining...

Archangel

It gets a little funky Michael, how do u feel today?
And Uriel and Raphael, you shine the light for me to find the way

smiling...

How many lost in battle? How many were not there?
How many tongues were silenced? How many did not care?

And when the battle's over, how many to ordain?
We cannot help you fight them, so we'll help you share
the blame

And I know that you fly so high, all alone in another sky Michael, can you hear me now and Gabriel, I keep my vows and Raphael, inside of me and Uriel, you help me, help me see... you help me see
