Such a nice day for spin around
The spirit world
I knew it was really you in there
Despite all your disguise

You know that hell is waiting
You're leaving today
Disciple in the making,
You might he might just have found a better way

Be gone, don't come around here no more
Be gone, again I show you the door
Be gone, white knights, they drive you away
Be gone, this time you are gone to stay

Such a nice day for a spin around
Inside the soul
A web we will not let you spin
Inside your black hole

We cast you out tonight
Your spell is old
We work with Jesus Christ
You know you're never gonna get
The souls they sold

Be gone, don't come around here no more Be gone, again I show you the door
Be gone, white knights, they drive you away
Be gone, this time you are gone to stay
Be gone, don't come around here no more
Be gone, again we show you the door
Be gone, white knights, they drive you away
Be gone, this time you are gone to stay
Be gone, the saints they're driving you out
Be gone, along with your shadows of doubt
Be gone, evil one you know we know how
Be gone, evil one, we now have the power
Be gone, don't come around here no more
Be gone, again we show you the door
Be gone, white knights, they drive you away
Be gone, this time you are gone to stay

Be gone, the saints they're driving you out
Be gone, along with your shadows of doubt
Be gone, evil one you know we know how
Be gone, evil one, we now have the power
Be gone, don't come around here no more
Be gone, evil one we show you the door
Be gone, BZ you're beaten again
Be gone, easy we're ten out of ten

Cast off, knit one, pearl one, cast off
