Album: No Excuses

Ever since the world's been turning
It turned away from me
I've been pushed across the planet
To find my destiny
I've been running away from something
That's deep inside myself
I've been running till that someday
When I reached the border's edge

Refrain:

Push me I'm living on the edge
Push me I'm sick of living like that
Push me living on the edge
The weak play the strong out of fear of what's wrong
yeah

Push me I'm living on the edge
Push me I'm sick of living like that
Push me living on the edge
Im sick to death and learned the lesson
I'm still running yet I don't got Ground beneath my feet - something is tracking me something is wrecking me
I'm still running and I don't have Time to fall into deep

Refrain:

Push me I'm living on the edge
Push me I'm sick of living like this
Push me living on the edge
Im sick to death and learned the lesson
Push me I'm living on the edge
Push me I'm sick of living like that
Push me living on the edge
Im sick to death and learned the lesson
Push me I'm living on the edge
Push me I'm sick of living like this
Push me living on the edge
The weak play the strong out of fear of what's wrong
yeah
Push me I'm living on the edge
Push me I'm sick of living like that
Push me living on the edge

Im sick to death and learned the lesson
