"So strange"

Visit "So strange" on MotoLyrics.com

In the night, you're the light
Oh too much
Running wild, like a child
Oh too much

Cos you only wanted to watch the moon glow
I think I'll find I've the time to say
It doesn't matter anyway

'Cos I feel, I feel so strange
And my mind is just totally deranged

It's so bright so we fight
Oh too much
I was right and you lied
Oh too much

There's no time like the present for this thing
I think I'll find I've the time to say
I'm gonna fight you for another day

'Cos I feel, I feel so strange
In this big emotional exchange
