a lack of sympathy is wath it means to me in my eyes tears I've cried lived through that tragedy, kissed by the memory why....

darkness shines so bright night is wrapped in sunlight uncertainty is the guid helplessness will satisfy shame turned into pride dirt has cleansed virginity

chorus:

love's a word of antipathy that's what you mean to me cause you're Anna M, Anna M you smiled while you were killing me smiled while you were selling me piece by piece again sunlight shines so bright the night is wrapped in darkness certainty is the guide helplessnes unsatisfies steadfastness's my pride dirt has stained virginity

a lack of sympathy is what is means to me why...
lived through a tragedy kissed by the memory loved once I loved ones die
